MSSI members in Society Tent at Arkansas Scottish Festival

...And a Ceud Mile Failte (a hundred thousand welcomes) to You, Lads and Lasses!

We are the Memphis Scottish Society, Inc., a non-profit corporation founded in 1984 to foster education and promote understanding and good fellowship among individuals of Scottish descent and people from other backgrounds who are drawn to the uniquely rich culture and heritage of Scotland.

Our membership/community outreach programs include:

- § informal and informative meetings, held the second Monday of each month
- § Grace Notes, a monthly newsletter which includes articles about Scottish history, personalities, events and activities, plus music and book reviews
- § focus groups for Scottish country dancing, piping and drumming, history, traditional singing, and military service
- § annual seasonal celebrations: Burns Nicht Supper, Spring Picnic, Summer Ceilidh, and Christmas Party
- § annual scholarships and grants, awarded for Scottish studies
- § assistance to local area churches in staging the traditional service, the Kirkin' o' the Tartans
- § participation in local festivals, parades, culture fairs and other educational opportunities
- § support of the Arkansas Scottish Festival, usually held the last weekend of April at Lyon College in Batesville, Arkansas
